

♥ The Books at Heart 2024 Reading Challenge

Category	Title/Author	Stars
 A book in translation		★★★★★
 A non-fiction book		★★★★★
 A poetry collection		★★★★★
* A short story collection		★★★★★
 A book published when you were a young child		★★★★★
 A book under 200 pages		★★★★★
 A book set somewhere you've never visited		★★★★★
 A book connected to France		★★★★★
 A children's or Young Adult book		★★★★★
♥ Re-read an old favourite		★★★★★
 A book that won a prize in the last 5 years		★★★★★
 A book by a debut author		★★★★★

♥ The Books at Heart 2024 Reading Challenge

Is this a competition? Are there prizes?

- No, it's reading for pleasure ♥
- The prize is to discover some great new books.

Public or Private? Your choice!

- You can take the challenge but keep it private. Just find some great books and record your progress with a pen.
- You can join our public challenge! Your progress will be shared at the library in our cumulative tracker

How to join the public challenge?

- Choose a pseudonym (by default, it's your first name and initial e.g. Jane Doe would be Jane D). We won't share your email address, nor your full name.
- Fill in the form at the front desk; or send a mail to info@ellia.org.

What to do when you've read a book?

- When you sign up, we'll send you a link to a Google form
- Fill in the form when you've read a book (title, author, your 5-star rating...)

What happens at the end of 2024?

- We will invite you to an "End of Challenge" celebration.

♥ Ellia The English Language Library in Angers

Inspired by the Backstory Bookstore challenge ☺

<https://backstory.london>