

The English-language Library presents the speakers series in English.

Free and open to the public.

Friday, January 19th at 10 am

Henri Landes

“One year of Donald Trump, what Effects on Climate & the Environment?”

Henri Landes grew up in New York & San Francisco. He received a BA in American history at the University of California, Davis and a Masters in International Affairs at Sciences Po Paris, majoring in sustainable development. He has worked as an environmental advisor to the Socialist Party and for the office of the President of the National Assembly. Today he is Executive Director of the Good Planet Foundation. He is also a lecturer in environmental policy at Sciences Po Paris.

Friday, March 2nd at 10 am

Gerald Shea

“The Sounds of Silence”

Gerald Shea has lived most of his life in New York and in Paris, and practiced law in both cities for many years. He has published internationally in legal and financial journals. He has written two books for a general audience, Song Without Words: Discovering My Deafness Halfway Through Life and The Language of Light: A History of Silent Voices. He and his wife live in Paris and spend summers in Massachusetts.

Friday, March 23rd at 10 am

Scott Sayare

“Jihadists in France”

Scott Sayare is a writer and reporter based in Paris. For five years he reported for The New York Times, attached to the newspaper's foreign bureau in the French capital and dispatched across France, southern Europe and North Africa. More recently, his reporting and essays have appeared in The Atlantic, GQ, and Harper's.

English-Language Library in Angers, 60 rue Boisnet, 49100 ANGERS

www.ellia.org

This program has been made possible through the support of United States Embassy.